

NI Broker Customers
From 1st March, 2024

Important changes to your policy as you renew on or after 1st March, 2024

The sections of your policy that have been amended are outlined below. If you would like a full copy of the new policy wording, please contact your insurance Broker.

Section	Summary of Change
Section 1. Loss and Damage to your car	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▶ Compulsory excess has increased from £100 to £250.▶ Young Driver Excess: In addition to the compulsory excess, a £400 excess will apply if the driver is aged 17-20, or a £250 excess will apply if the driver is aged 21-24.
Section 1. Loss and Damage to your car	A compulsory excess of £250 will apply if your car is deemed a write off as a result of an accident, unless the vehicle is with an AXA approved repairer, in which case the excess will reduce by £100.
Section 1. Loss and Damage to your car - Sub-section Fire and Theft	Your No Claims Discount will now be affected should you claim under the Fire and Theft subsection of Section 1 and an excess of £250 will now apply.
Section 1. Loss and Damage to your car Sub-section Fire and Theft	A compulsory excess of £250 will apply if your car is deemed a write off as a result of loss or damage due to fire or theft, unless the vehicle is with an AXA approved repairer, in which case the excess will reduce by £100.
Section 2. Broken Glass	Compulsory broken glass excess has increased from £75 to £100.

If you have any questions or would like a copy of your new policy document, please contact your Broker.

AXA Insurance dac is authorised and regulated by the Central Bank of Ireland. Authorised by the Prudential Regulation Authority. Subject to regulation by the Financial Conduct Authority and limited regulation by the Prudential Regulation Authority.

01/24 3973447 v4